

*Ganondagan
Native American*

WINTER GAMES AND SPORTS

10 am – 4 pm, SATURDAY
FEBRUARY 4, 2012

Let the games begin!

Participate in traditional Native American ways of celebrating the winter season. Try your hand at a snowsnake throw. Experience the thrill of watching a dogsled team. Walk in snowshoes.* Hike our trails through winter's eyes. Observe a winter craft demonstration or view an educational video.

*Bring your own or rent.

Hear traditional storytelling inside the bark longhouse. Additional children's activities in the Visitor Center. Admission is free and open to the public; a suggested donation of $5/family gratefully accepted. Hot food available for purchase. The event takes place with or without snow at Ganondagan State Historic Site.

Preserving a past.

Providing a future.

G A N O N D A G A N
Ganondagan State Historic Site, State Rte. 444 & County Rd. 41, Victor, NY
Visit ganondagan.org or call (585) 742-1690 or (585) 924-5848 for details.

In partnership with The Native American Resource Center, Rochester City School District.

Event images © Kevin Vickers & Amy Blum