

GANONDAGAN

SENECA ART AND CULTURE CENTER

TOUR / PROGRAM REQUEST FORM

Ganondagan State Historic Site is the only New York State site dedicated to Native peoples and can be considered as the ancestral homeland to the Seneca people. Ganondagan was the largest thriving Seneca community in the mid-17th century, with a population of roughly 4,000 people.

Today, Ganondagan and the Seneca Art and Culture Center serves as an educational institution, sharing the history, lifestyle, culture, and art of the Senecas and the Haudenosaunee as a whole. The mission of Ganondagan is that it continues to be the Town of Peace, and that the Haudenosaunee are still here, living and thriving today.
